Profile

Freelance Supply Chain and Procurement Manager with a specialization in FMCG, Warehousing, Production and Product- and Category Management.

The core ingredient is the composition of the product and/or services that support the general (current or new) business goal in the areas of:

- A. Temporary replacement of job position
- B. Process improvement
  - Increased process flow (e.g. primary cost reduction or quality focus (these are balanced objects))
  - Flexibility (e.g. changing market conditions > Lean when needed)
  - General improvement (direct or indirectly KPI related (e.g. mapping demand foundations of stakeholders))

The mutual business growth mindset combined with the drive of continuous growth makes it ideal for encountering volatile and transitional environments. This balanced value is active during the full life cycle of the assignment.
